Weak Links in a Strong Chain

That's just what imitation parts are when they become a part of your Ford car. They look strong enough, but the metal isn't there—the strong, durable Vanadium steel that goes into the Ford chassis and every Ford part. Ford parts are specially cast and heat-treated, each according to its use. Some require a hard, flint-like wearing surface, others need resiliency, and some need just "toughness."

Ford metallurgists have been studying these problems for sixteen years and know just how each unit should be made to endure a maximum of wear and tear. They know that best results can be obtained only by the use of special formulas for different parts, and that honest Ford parts wear from thirty-five to one hundred per cent longer than counterfeits.

Every complete assortment of genuine Ford parts for both passenger cars and trucks, and our garage is equipped to give careful, prompt Ford service—from minor adjustments to complete overhauls. Drive in, it's better to be safe than sorry. Come to the Authorized Ford dealer for service.

LESSON FOR JUNE 27

REVIEW: THE NOBLE LIFE OF SAMUEL

SELECTION FOR READING—I Sam.

GOLDEN TEXT—I will teach you the good and the right way.—I Sam. 12:22.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—I Sam. 13:22.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Stories About Sam.

JUNIOR TOPIC—A Boy Who Became a Great Man.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Strong Points in Samuel's Character.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Samuel's Service to His People.

The method of review must largely be determined by the teacher in the grade of the class. For the younger children, a good way would be to make it biographical, centering in Gideon, Eli, Samuel, Eli's sons, Saul and David. Of course, the outstanding personality is Samuel whose life was a noble one. Eli's piety was second, meaning of much. Samuel—"asked of God" given in answer to prayer; third, dedicated to the service of God; fourth, in the temple; fifth, in the tabernacle; sixth, in the following from Samuel's Select Notes is an interesting and profitable method:

"This review, suited to older classes only, will deal with difficult questions involved in or suggested by the lesson. It may be asked, 'What good is it to be making it biographical?'

"It is good because it helps to discuss adequately during the quarter.

"Assign one of these to each student, and divide the time evenly among them. The following list of topics may be helpful, but it is to be noted that these are only suggestive."

"Lesson I. How to get religion into our state and national government.

"Lesson II. How to utilize better what we are doing the power of women.

"Lesson III. How to bring together and use the righteous and bold-minded."

"Lesson IV. How to single out and help the deserving poor.

"Lesson V. How to develop the religious capacities of children.

"Lesson VI. How to open the eyes of parents to their children's faults.

"Lesson VII. How to bring to bear upon public questions the decisive power of prayer.

"Lesson VIII. How to select the best leaders in church and state.

"Lesson IX. How to develop individual initiative without the loss of discipline.

"Lesson X. How godly men may influence the progress of affairs.

"Lesson XI. How to inspire children with lofty ideals.

"Lesson XII. How to make our lives serene and truthful.

"A plan which can be adapted to all grades is the gathering of the main facts of each lesson, and then stating its leading points.

The following are suggestions as to the leading lessons:

"Lesson for April 4. As Jesus joined the disciples on the way to Jerusalem, he's walking and says, 'Tell my troubles and perplexities.' He wants us to confide in him.

"Lesson for April 11. Deborah's judgment shows that a woman can administer justice for her people, but of leading a nation forth to victory in time of war.

"Lesson for April 18. The secret of Gideon's victory was his faith. The ground of his faith was God's word.

"Lesson for April 25. Because God foresees coming trouble, and friends and the true God, she has been accorded a place of honor in the calendar of Christ.

"Lesson for May 2. Because Samuel was given in answer to a mother's prayer, and was dedicated to the Lord's service, the Lord was able to use him in a large way.

"Lesson for May 9. Parson Jonathan goes to see his son, and finds his son's deathbed.

"Lesson for May 16. When God's people repeat their sins and turn to him for pardon he will not only hear, but will fight their battles and give victory.

"Lesson for May 23. When the people took their eyes off God, their King, they desired a man as king in command of the practice of the heathen ritual.

"Lesson for May 30. When Saul felt that the call of God to deliver his people and waited for God's sign for him, he was able to go forward and attain his goal.

"Lesson for June 6. Because Saul disobeyed the command of God, judgment from the hand of God fell upon him.

"Lesson for June 13. God looked down on the outworn appearance, but on the heart; his choices are not arbitrary.

"Lesson for June 20. 'The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.'

"Our Sufficiency Is of God.

"Of ourselves, in the mere strength of our own nature and our own will, we cannot overcome any single one of our fleshly weaknesses.

"We are not the world's alibi.

"We are not the world's excuse.

"We are not the world's agent.

"We are not the world's answer.

"We are not the world's hope.

"We are not the world's salvation.

"We are not the world's strength.

"We are not the world's support.

"We are not the world's supply.

"We are not the world's supply.
